

I have found that the traffic and weather channels have been very helpful in my travels. I purchased the xmradio so that i did not have to keep messing with the radio while driving down the road. I know the channels for the area i in and i do not have to search for stations on the radio. I respectfully urge the FCC to reject the NAB petition 04-160